

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF EXTENSION 4-H AGENTS

University of Illinois Extension, State 4-H Office
302 E. John St., #1901, Champaign, IL 61820

November 13, 2006

Vernon Parent, Utah State University Extension/4-H
Keri Shoemaker, Utah State University/Utah LTAP Center
N. Dee Hadfield, Utah State University/Utah LTAP Center
Larry Stephenson, Washington County School District

Dear Vernon, Keri, Dee and Larry:

On behalf of the NAE4-HA Member Recognition Committee, let me say Congratulations! Your Excellence in Teen Programming – Team entry “Utah Construction Career Days” was selected as a National Winner for 2006. You will be recognized during the NAE4-HA Awards Banquet scheduled for 7:00 PM on Wednesday, October 24, in Milwaukee, WI. Please forward my congratulations onto your fellow team members.

It is a pleasure for this committee to witness the expertise and professionalism of our colleagues around the nation. Please know that your efforts are appreciated and recognized for the contribution they make to our clientele – especially the youth and volunteers who participate in our 4-H programs. Your efforts also build Youth Development, in general, and those of us who serve its ranks as professionals.

In closing, I would like to wish you the best of success in your future endeavors. We hope to see more of your outstanding contributions in the future.

Sincerely,

William J. Million, Chair
NAE4-HA Member Recognition Committee

NAE4-HA promotes, strengthens, enhances and advocates the 4-H youth development profession.

The Association is committed to the active involvement of all its members regardless of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status.